

Eyes that seek to see right through you / desire in terminals of unprecedented collapse / spectres to uncover / fresnel hands and 3-eyed fingers / the monitor becomes a telescope / intersections of multiple sight lines / to trace and to decipher / a grid between cell towers, piercing

Coded cartilage, housing marrow matted / unprecedented geometry / a violent insidious logic / window me a blind script / translate it into movements I can aggregate / as a manifested spine, deciphered / In that view of everything as a vehicle on ceded horizons / an industrial process somewhere in space / falsely moderated

I am 67% apprehension / teased into scrolling to lull myself to sleep / exhausted thinking of all the money my body can exhibit / in whose hands? / beyond that which appears constant / clicking at an intimate rate / my sight, visionless but still selecting / redirecting focus / the infinite choice of infinite error

I am not my own / an understructure in the absence of explicit permission / planar designs slide across me / violently / cascading echo chambers / I feel at home in this deafening feedback

What does it mean for the both of us to become intangible? / maybe we can forge a  just big enough for us to disappear / if only for a moment of your precious time / a neural calculation / determining faster than I ever could

I'll take the light of the dying screen / and render it a blueprint / for the scaffolds i can no longer see
